Interested in Volunteering?

Here is a sample of what you could do as a volunteer...

Maintenance of Trails

Be a part of a team that maintains a section of trail; brushing trees and shrubs.
Also repairing bridges and culverts and putting up fences and safety ribbons to control winter traffic

Trail Permits

Service our designated Permit Outlets and Process sold permits for Clubs

Trail Signage

Put up OFSC Prescribed Signage prior to Trail opening – usually in early December
Become a signage expert and help train others

Designated Trail Patrol

Check machines for Trail Permits, and if none, ask them to purchase one on the spot

Landowners

Become a contact for Landowners to give consent to enter their property

Advertising

Help sell advertising for the annual District Map
Organize an Social (in or out of season), a BBQ, a Club ride or other event

Groomer & Equipment Shed/Club House

Organize and clean the Groomer Shop and yard
Arrange to have equipment repaired as the Safety Coordinator

Groomer Operators

Training is mandatory for this one!
Also help the operators with scheduling

Administrative

Pick up the incoming mail at the post office
Become the contact person for other volunteers and maintain volunteer contacts

Club Volunteer Executive Committee

Prepare the Club's Annual Budget and keep track of finances
Prepare and send out meeting information and minutes
